The Tzedakah fund contribution is a commitment to support scholarship and chesed programs offered by our school and is considered part of the Bi-Cultural mission. It may be made in whole or in part through family contributions or matching gifts from their companies. Up to $500 of the Tzedakah Fund commitment can be fulfilled through the School's Scrip Program. See (<https://shop.shopwithscrip.com>)

*Parents are expected to make an annual contribution to the Capital Building Fund. In the amount of $2,000 per family. Additional gifts are welcome. Honoring opportunities are available.

Tuition is billed on an annual basis.

Should a child withdraw for medical, scholastic, relocation or other reasons during the school year, the tuition refund insurance carrier will make a prorated payment based on the number of days the child attended school. Tuition Refund Insurance costs 1.05% of the tuition billed. Tuition Refund Insurance is mandatory, except for parents who pay the entire bill prior to commencement of the school year.
