At Bi-Cultural Hebrew Academy, we strive each day to provide an education of the highest caliber. Your financial support is essential to our success.

*A non-refundable deposit of $1,500 is required at contract.

 The Tzedakah fund contribution is a commitment to support the scholarship and chesed programs offered by our School and is considered part of the Bi-Cultural mission. It may be made in whole or in part through family contributions or matching gifts from their companies.

Tuition is billed on an annual basis.

Should a child withdraw for medical, scholastic, relocation or other reasons during the school year, the tuition refund insurance carrier will make a prorated payment based on the number of days the child attended school. Tuition Refund Insurance costs 1.2% of the tuition billed. Tuition Refund Insurance is mandatory, except for families who pay the entire bill prior to commencement of the school year.
